(f) If Employee's employment is terminated as a result of Employee's death or a determination that Employee is Disabled or Incapacitated, then prior to the 30th day following the Termination Date, the Company shall pay to Employee (or his legal representatives) in a lump sum, to the extent not previously paid, the Base Salary through the Termination Date, less applicable withholdings.

(g) If the Company terminates Employee's employment without Cause, then the Company will provide Employee with the following severance payments and/or benefits:

(i) Prior to the 30th day following the Termination Date, the Company shall pay to Employee, in the regular bi-weekly installments the Base Salary through the Termination Date, and any KPI bonus or LTI award related to the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the Termination Date falls once the amount of such KPI bonus or LTI award has been determined if not yet paid to Employee as of the Termination Date. (ii) Starting as of the next applicable Company payroll date after the Termination Date (provided Employee has executed and delivered a Release Agreement pursuant to Section 5(h) below, and such Release Agreement has become effective and irrevocable), the Company will pay Employee severance as follows:

- A. If the Employment Period is less than 48 months from the Effective Date, the Company will pay Employee 6 months of severance pay at Employee's Base Salary in 13 bi-weekly installments as part of the Company's normal payroll, less applicable withholdings following the date on which the conditions in Section 5 (g) are met.
- B. If the Employment Period is 48 months or greater from the Effective Date, the Company will pay Employee 12 months of severance pay at Employee's Base Salary in 26 bi-weekly installments as part of the Company's normal payroll, less applicable withholdings following the date on which the conditions in Section 5(g) are met.

(h) If Employee's employment with the Company is separated for cause, then following the Termination Date, the Company shall pay to Employee, less applicable withholdings, to the extent not previously paid, (a) the Base Salary through the Termination Date, at the time required by applicable law, and (b) Employee shall automatically forfeit:

- 1. Any bonus to which Employee might otherwise have been entitled pursuant to the Company's KPI or LTI Plan (i) related to the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the Termination Date falls if the amount of such KPI or LTI Bonus has been determined by the Board but not yet paid; and (ii) for the fiscal year in which the Termination takes place; and

2. Any Restricted Stock Units, unexercised options and SARs (whether vested or unvested) awarded pursuant to the Company's 2012 Incentive Compensation Plan.

(i) The obligations of the Company to make payments under Section 5(g) are conditioned on Employee executing and returning to the Company a general release agreement ("Release Agreement") releasing the Company, the Company Affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors, members, managers, partners and shareholders with respect to Employee's employment in the form acceptable to Company, and such Release Agreement becoming effective and irrevocable no later than fifty-five (55) days following Employee's Termination Date. To the extent such fifty-five (55) day period may cover two taxable years, payments will be made in the later of the two such years. Employee acknowledges that until a Release Agreement is timely executed and delivered to the Company and the applicable revocation period (if any) expires, the Company will not be obligated to pay any severance due to Employee under this Agreement. If Employee has breached in any material respect any of Employee's obligations in Section 6 below, then, without precluding its right to take any other actions available pursuant to this Agreement or applicable law, the Board may elect to immediately terminate Employee's right to receive, and Company's obligation to pay, any additional severance, and Employee shall have no further rights to severance.

6. Employee Covenants. Employee agrees and acknowledges that to ensure that the Company retains its value and goodwill, he has a continuing obligation to not use any Confidential Information (as defined below), special knowledge of the business, or the relationships of the Company or the Company Affiliates with their respective customers and employees, all of which Employee will continue to gain access to through Employee's employment with the Company, other than in the furtherance of Employee's legitimate job duties. Accordingly, Employee agrees to the following restrictive covenants.

(a) Confidential Information. Employee acknowledges that by reason of his employment by the Company, or while being associated with the Company Affiliates, Employee has had and will continue to have access to and become informed of Confidential Information (defined below) that is a competitive asset of the Company or the Company Affiliates, and agrees that the Company and the Company Affiliates have a protectable interest in such Confidential Information. Therefore, Employee agrees that during the Employment Period and after his termination for any reason he shall not, directly or indirectly, disclose to any unauthorized person or use for his own purposes any such Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the Company unless and to the extent that such Confidential Information (i) becomes or is generally known to the public and available for use by the public and industry other than as a result of Employee's unauthorized acts or omissions in breach of this Agreement, or (ii) is required to be disclosed by judicial process, law or securities exchange on which the securities of the Company or any of the Company Affiliates are listed; provided, however, that Employee, to the extent not prohibited by such process, law or exchange, shall give the Company written notice of the Confidential Information to be so disclosed pursuant to clause (ii) of this sentence as far in advance of its disclosure as is reasonably practicable, shall cooperate with the Company in any efforts to protect the Confidential Information from disclosure (including efforts to secure a judicial order to such effect), and shall limit his disclosure of such Confidential Information to the minimum disclosure required by such process, law or exchange. Employee acknowledges that all documents and other property including or reflecting Confidential Information furnished to Employee by the Company or any Company Affiliate or otherwise acquired or developed by the Company or any Company Affiliate or acquired, developed or known by Employee by reason of the performance of his duties for, or his association with, the Company or any Company Affiliate shall at all times be the property of the Company. Employee shall take all reasonable steps to safeguard Confidential Information and protect it against disclosure, misuse, loss or theft. "Confidential Information" means (x) any and all trade secrets concerning the business and affairs of the Company or any Company Affiliate, any product specifications, data, know-how, formulae, compositions, processes, designs, sketches, photographs, graphs, drawings, samples, inventions and ideas, past, current and planned research and development, current and planned manufacturing and distribution methods and processes, customer lists, current and anticipated customer requirements, price lists, market studies, business plans, computer software and programs (including object code and source code), database technologies, systems, structures, architectures, processes, improvements, devices, discoveries, concepts, methods, and information of the Company or any Company Affiliate; (y) any and all information concerning the business and affairs of the Company or any Company Affiliate (which includes financial statements, financial projections and budgets, historical and projected sales, capital spending budgets and plans, the names and backgrounds of key personnel, contractors, agents, suppliers and potential suppliers, personnel training and techniques and materials, and purchasing methods and techniques), however documented; and (z) any and all notes, analysis, compilations, studies, summaries and other material prepared by or for the Company or Company Affiliate containing or based, in whole or in part, upon any information included in the foregoing.

(b) Non-Compete. Employee agrees that Employee has had and will continue to have access to Confidential Information concerning the Company and the Company Affiliates and that Employee's services are of special, unique and extraordinary value to the Company and the Company Affiliates. Therefore, Employee agrees that during his employment with the Company and until 12 months after the Termination Date (regardless of the reason for termination), Employee shall not, other than in the legitimate exercise of his duties for the Company during his employment with the Company, directly or indirectly own, manage, operate, control, be employed or engaged by, lend to, or otherwise serve as a director, officer, stockholder, partner, member, manager, agent, consultant or contractor of or to, any entity that engages in, or otherwise engage or participate in, whether or not for compensation, the Business (as defined in Section 9(a) of this Agreement), or in any other business in which the Company or any Company Affiliate engages as of the date on which Employee's employment with the Company ends and in which Employee has been actively involved ("Competitive Activity"). The provisions in this Section 6(b) shall operate in the market areas of the United States and any other market areas of any other countries anywhere in the world in which the Company or any Company Affiliate conducts its business as of Employee's separation from the Company. The foregoing shall not restrict the Employee from directly or indirectly owning stock of the Company or up to an aggregate of one percent of the outstanding stock of any publicly held company engaged in Competitive Activity.

(c) Non-Solicitation. Employee agrees that during his employment with the Company and until the first anniversary of the Termination Date (regardless of the reason for termination), he shall not, directly or indirectly, whether individually, as a director, stockholder, partner, member, manager, owner, officer, employee, agent, consultant or contractor of or to any business or entity, or in any other capacity: (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee of the Company or any Company Affiliate to leave his or her employ or in any way interfere with the relationship between the Company or any Company Affiliate and any employee thereof; (ii) solicit to hire or hire any person who was an employee of the Company or any Company Affiliate at any time during the one-year period prior to the date of such solicitation; or (iii) solicit any customer, developer, client, supplier, vendor, licensee, licensor, franchisee or other business relation of the Company or any Company Affiliate for sale thereto of any products or services related to any Competitive Activity, induce or attempt to induce any such customer, developer, client, supplier, vendor, licensee, licensor, franchisee or other business relation of the Company or any Company Affiliate to cease doing business with the Company or any Company Affiliate, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, developer, client, supplier, vendor, licensee, licensor, franchisee or business relation of the Company or any Company Affiliate.

(d) Ownership of Inventions. Employee hereby agrees that any and all inventions (whether or not an application for protection has been filed under patent laws), works of authorship, information fixed in any tangible medium of expression (whether or not protected under copyright laws), Moral Rights, mask works, trademarks, trade names, trade dress, trade secrets, publicity rights, know-how, ideas (whether or not protected under trade secret laws), and all other subject matter protected under patent, copyright, Moral Right (defined as any right to claim authorship of a work, any right to object to any distortion or other modification of a work, and any similar right, existing under the law of any country, or under any treaty), mask work, trademark, trade secret, or other laws, that have been, are or will be developed, generated or produced by Employee, solely or jointly with others, at any time while employed by the Company, including during the Employment Period, are and shall be the exclusive property of the Company, subject to the obligations of this Section 6 with respect to Confidential Information, and Employee hereby forever waives and agrees never to assert against the Company, its successors or licensees any and all ownership, interest, Moral Rights or similar rights with respect thereto. Employee hereby assigns to the Company all right, title and interest to the foregoing inventions, concepts, ideas and materials. This Section 6(d) does not apply to any invention or other work of Employee for which no equipment, supplies, facility or Confidential Information of the Company was used and that was developed entirely on Employee's own time, unless the invention (A) relates to (x) the Business or (y) the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (B) results from any work performed by Employee for or on behalf of the Company. Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all inventions, concepts, ideas and materials made by Employee (jointly or with others) during the term of Employee's association or employment with the Company. Such records shall remain the property of the Company at all times. Employee shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company the nature and particulars of any Inventions or research project undertaken on the Company's behalf.

7. Enforcement and Remedies.

(a) If, at the time of enforcement of any of Sections 6(a),(b),(c) or (d), a court of competent jurisdiction shall hold that the restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the court shall be allowed to substitute the maximum legally-permissible restrictions for the restrictions contained in this Agreement.

(b) Employee acknowledges that the provisions of Section 6 are in consideration of good and valuable consideration, including the sign-on bonus, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged. Employee expressly agrees and acknowledges that the restrictions contained in Section 6 do not preclude Employee from earning a livelihood, nor do they unreasonably impose limitations on Employee's ability to earn a living. In addition, Employee agrees and acknowledges that the Company and the Company Affiliates are engaged in the Business, the Business is highly competitive and the services to be performed by Employee for the Company are unique and national in nature, and the potential harm to the Company and the Company Affiliates of the non-enforcement of the provisions of this Section 7 outweighs any harm to Employee of the enforcement of such provisions by injunction or otherwise. Employee acknowledges that Employee has carefully read this Agreement and has given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon Employee by this Agreement, and is in full accord as to their necessity. Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that the restrictions contained herein are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the Confidential Information and the goodwill of the businesses of the Company and the Company Affiliates, and Employee agrees not to challenge the validity or enforceability of the restrictions contained herein. The parties hereto expressly agree that money damages would not be an adequate remedy for breaching any provision of Section 6, and that the Company would be irreparably damaged if Employee were to disclose the Confidential Information, solicit or hire Employees, solicit customers or provide services to any person or entity in violation of the provisions of this Agreement. Therefore, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any such provision, the Company and/or any Company Affiliate or their respective successors or assigns shall be entitled to, in addition to other rights and remedies existing in their favor, apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for specific performance and/or injunctive or other relief in order to enforce or prevent any violations of the provisions hereof (without the necessity of posting a bond or other security, or proving economic harm).

8. Post Termination Obligations.

(a) Return of Company Materials. Immediately upon Termination of Employee's employment for any reason, Employee shall return to the Company, and shall not retain in any form or media of expression, all Company and Company Affiliate property that is then in Employee's possession, custody or control, including, without limitation, all keys, access cards, credit cards, computer hardware and software, documents, records, policies, marketing information, design information, specifications and plans, data base information and lists, and any other property or information that Employee has or had relating to the Company or any Company Affiliate (whether those materials are in paper or computer-stored form), and including but not limited to any documents containing, summarizing, or describing any Confidential Information. Upon the Company's request, Employee will certify in writing, in a form acceptable to the Company, that Employee has returned all Company and Company Affiliate property, including any Confidential Information and copies thereof.

During the Employment Period and for twelve (12) months thereafter, Employee shall, upon reasonable notice, reasonably assist the Company and the Company Affiliates (the "Affiliated Group") in the defense of any claims, or potential claims that may be made or threatened to be made against any member of the Affiliated Group in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise (a "Proceeding"), and will reasonably assist the Affiliated Group in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by any member of the Affiliated Group in any Proceeding, to the extent that such claims may relate to Employee's employment or the period of Employee's employment by the Company. The Company shall reimburse Employee for all of the Employee's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses associated with such assistance, including travel expenses and any attorneys' fees and shall pay a reasonable per diem fee (at $250 per hour) for the Employee's service under this Section.

A termination will not be for “Cause” to the extent such conduct is curable, unless Company shall have notified Employee in writing describing such conduct and prescribing conduct required to cure such conduct and Employee shall have failed to cure such conduct within ten (10) business days after his receipt of such written notice. For purposes of this definition of Cause, no act or failure to act on the part of Employee shall be considered willful if it is done, or omitted to be done, by Employee in good faith and with a good faith belief that Employee’s act or omission was in the best interests of Company.
