PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed by Power Solutions International, Inc. (the "Company") in its Current Reports on Form 8-K, as filed on January 5, 2017, February 3, 2017, April 7, 2017 and August 3, 2017, the Company has determined to restate its consolidated financial statements for (i) the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, (ii) the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 and the fiscal quarters within such fiscal year, and (iii) the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2016 to reflect the impact of certain errors involving revenue recognition. The Company is working diligently to quantify the expected adjustments necessary to complete the restatements and to file its delinquent reports as soon as practicable. As a result of the pending restatements, the Company is unable to complete its financial statements and file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2017 by the prescribed due date for such filing. The Company does not expect to file the Form 10-Q on or before the expiration of the 5 calendar day extension period provided in Rule 12b-25(b). The Company plans to file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable following the completion of the restatements.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

- (1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification.

Charles F. Avery, Jr. (Name)	(630) (Area Code)	350-9400 (Telephone Number)
--	-----------------------------	---------------------------------------

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

The Company has not yet filed its Form 10-Q quarterly reports for the quarters ended June 30, 2016, September 30, 2016, and March 31, 2017, and its Form 10-K annual report for the year ended December 31, 2016.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company presently expects the results of operations for the quarter ended June 30, 2017 to be favorably impacted by an increase in demand across all major end markets, as compared to the same period in 2016. Any expected improvements in operating results are presently expected to be more than offset by significant legal and other third party professional fees related to the ongoing efforts to restate previously disclosed prior period financial statements, have audited the three-year period financial statements impacted by the restatements, as well as respond to the ongoing independent internal review and external regulatory investigation. The Company expects to continue to incur expenses for the foregoing matters.

The Company's total debt obligations increased in the second quarter of 2017 by approximately $8.4 million to approximately $80.3 million as of June 30, 2017.

Until the Company has restated its previously filed financial statements and finalized its financial statements for all periods subsequent to the restated financial statements, including for the quarter ended June 30, 2017, it is unable to provide comparative period financial results and report its final results. Upon such finalization, the Company will be in a position to provide a reasonable estimate of its financial results for the period.

Caution Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements regarding the current expectations of the Company about its prospects and opportunities. These forward-looking statements are covered by the "Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements" provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company has tried to identify these forward-looking statements by using words such as "expect," "contemplate," "anticipate," "estimate," "plan," "will," "would," "should," "forecast," "budgeted," "believe," "outlook," "guidance," "projection," "target" or similar expressions, but these words are not the exclusive means for identifying such statements. The Company cautions that a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements, including, without limitation: the final results of the Audit Committee's independent review as it impacts the Company's accounting, accounting policies and internal control over financial reporting; management's ability to successfully implement the Audit Committee's remedial recommendations; the reasons giving rise to the resignation of the Company's prior independent registered public accounting firm; the time and effort required to complete the restatement of the affected financial statements, complete its delinquent financial statements and amend or prepare the related Form 10-K and Form 10-Q filings; the subsequent discovery of additional adjustments to the Company's previously issued financial statements; the timing of completion of necessary re-audits, interim reviews and audits by the new independent registered public accounting firm; the timing of completion of steps to address and the inability to address and remedy, material weaknesses; the identification of additional material weaknesses or significant deficiencies; variances in non-recurring expenses; risks relating to the substantial costs and diversion of personnel's attention and resources deployed to address the financial reporting and internal control matters and related class action litigation; the ability of the Company to accurately budget for and forecast product shipments, the extent to which product shipments result in recorded revenues; the impact of the resignation of the Company's former independent registered public accounting firm on the Company's relationship with its lender and trade creditors and the potential for defaults and exercise of creditor remedies; the impact of the previously disclosed investigation initiated by the SEC and any related or additional governmental investigative or enforcement proceedings; the impact of recent resignations of the Company's directors and certain executive officers and any delays and challenges encountered in recruiting replacements for open positions and the replacements' transitions into their positions; and any negative impacts from delisting of the Company's common stock from Nasdaq and any delays and challenges in obtaining a re-listing on a stock exchange. Actual events or results may differ materially from the Company's expectations. The Company's forward-looking statements are presented as of the date hereof. Except as required by law, the Company expressly disclaims any intention or obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
